

Company profile

2016

Mythberg Films is a feature and television film-production company based in Budapest, Hungary. In addition to its in-house developed majority films, the company is intensely focusing on minority international co-productions and services.

Through its well-developed company structure, Mythberg Films' experienced team has successfully produced and/or co-produced more than a dozen cinema projects, TV-movies, and documentaries above and beyond its other projects through its professional personnel.

Over its 15 years of operation, Mythberg Films has become a trustworthy and reliable production house known for its experienced and friendly team, its creative involvement, and most importantly for its professional production management with legal and financial advisors and affiliated partners through which the company can cost-effectively handle productions meeting the highest production standards and solve all matters to the benefit of partners and financiers.
